

Assistance Dog Potential Funding Sources

If you are seeking financial assistance to pay for your assistance dog there are numerous local community service organizations that may offer resources. Some examples are:

- Kiwanis International
- Rotary Club
- Civitans Club
- Lions Club
- Other Community Service Organizations
(see accompanying lists of Santa Fe and Albuquerque organizations)

ALSO (as appropriate)

- Religious organizations (especially those you are associated with).
- Corporate Matching Funds: larger businesses frequently have a matching fund if an employee makes a donation to a non-profit through work, so if you have anyone that can contribute through work, have them check for a matching fund.
- Corporate Foundations: many large organizations have foundations that make grants. If you have family or friends employed by large firms, have them check with their Human Resources or Benefits departments
- Local businesses that you interact with – your bank, your dry cleaners, your favorite restaurants, etc.
- NM Division of Vocational Rehab (check other states)
- NM Aging and Long Term Services Dept (check other states)
- NM Department of Health, Developmental Disabilities Supports Division (check other states)

There are specific funds available through the 'Voucher Program' at Assistance Dog United Campaign. Applications must be requested through ADUC, filled out and returned to them between April 1 and May 31 each year.
